

SAVE THE PERSECUTED CHRISTIANS

MARKED FOR PERSECUTION

The  or “nun” letter stands for “Nazarene,” a derogatory Arabic word for “Christian.” It has become an international symbol for the oppression of Christians.

Pictured here is the widow of one of the 21 Egyptian Coptic Christian men beheaded by ISIS in Libya in 2015. Before their death, all cried in unison

“Ya Rabbi Yasou” (O My Lord Jesus).

May we, too, hear their plea.

JOIN US IN MAKING A DIFFERENCE

1. ENDORSE the Save the Persecuted Christians (STPC) Coalition:

- Send us your name and organization so we can recognize you for standing with persecuted Christians. Send to:

info@savethepersecutedchristians.org

2. INVITE others to help us build the campaign’s momentum:

- Invite leaders at your place of worship (and others) to order a Save the Persecuted Christians banner – the first one is free – then share a picture of it on display via info@SavethePersecutedChristians.org and social media on Facebook and Instagram.

3. SUBSCRIBE at our website:

SavethePersecutedChristians.org

- Participate in national teleconferences, webinars, and summits. Share news, stories, and social media content about the persecution of Christians and what is being done to help them. Learn more about how YOU can be involved in the Coalition’s future plans.
